HARVARD FUTURE NOT BRIGHT.

Tigers Begin Work Behind Closed Gates to Brace Up Weak Spots Revealed in Saturday's Game.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New Haven, Oct 24.-In spite of the Saturday's defeat, as the score of the West Point game shows, the Yale coaches are pleased at the eleven's progress, and are satisfied with the strength shown in that game. To-day's work maintained that satisfaction, for the 'varsity defense was excellent, the strongest scrub eleven being unable to keep up a ground-gaining attack. The 'varsity offense was good, and the speed was unusual. The whole practice showed that the eleven has begun to come forward as a team.

ever, that to play Yale's simple style of football and roll up a safe score there must be absolute consistency in the at-tack, and that a fumble or fluke is likely to be deadly. Failure to keep it up incessantly will militate against ascoring. Frank A. Hickey continued trying to whip Sheviin, Neal, Hare and Stewart into form as end rushes. He was assisted by former Captain Charles Gould, Brink Thorno spent all his time on Vecder and Hoyt, half backs. Both men punted to-day in a manner that shows promise of a brilliancy in the big games of Novem-ber, All together, the stately progress of last week was not halted by the misfor-tune, which the Yale men do not worry about.

The game with West Point showed, how-

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 24.—Harvard began to buck up her offense for the Pennsylvania football game next Saturday in her practice to-day. A strong second eleven was organized to meet the 'varsity backs and to urge them to stronger ef-The result was that the 'varsity had a hard time gaining with the ball. The practice was hard and snappy, but the results were not especially encouraging. The second took the ball on downs twice and the 'varsity fumbled once on the one-yard line. Inside the ten-yard line second eleven's defense was stubborn and the 'varsity had a hard time of it. Mills was the only regular back in the game to-day and he did good work. The substitutes, Osborne and Wendell, were poor. At end Randall played a good game, but Leary was useless. The latter did the punting and his efforts only averaged a trifle more than thirty yards. He is a pretty kicker in practice, but when he gets behind a scrimmage line he ne gets beaud a scrimmage line he falls off.

Few of the players who were in the Indian game were used to-day. Parker had a bad ankle, but will get into the Pennsylvania game. Parkinson has a cold and will take a rest for a few days. Nichols banged his arm in falling on the ball to-day and will be out of the game for a few days. Squires, who played right tackle Saturday, was shifted back to his position at right guard to-day. Cunniff, who has been out of the game since the early part of the season with a broken bone in his wrist, was in the scrimmage again this afternoon.

BECRET PRACTICE AT PROCESSEN SECRET PRACTICE AT PRINCETON.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL practice of the Tigers was conducted be-hind closed gates and proved to be one of the longest of the season thus far. The work of the 'varsity was, on the whole, encouraging, showing marked improvement in several respects, especial attention being given to strengthening the defense, which proved so weak in Saturday's game with Lehigh. The results in that strungle might have been very serious had Lehigh been even an ordinarily strong team. As it was, the visitors considerably alarmed the coaches.

Improvement was shown at left guard, however, as Dillon is at last back in the game in Waller's place. Great general relief is expressed at his return, as the part of the line that was formerly so weak will now present a solid front.

The 'varsity offense was, as usual, fairly good, resulting in one touchdown, though such a result does not show up very well in consideration of the fact that the halves were twenty minutes each. work of the 'varsity was, on the whole,

> It was agreed, however, that the bouts should be held Friday. Members of the committee will hold a special meeting tonight and all details of the programme will be agreed upon. R. Faulkner, Jr., was chosen chairman, J. E. O'Connor was appointed secretary and R. Lee Killian was chosen treasurer. The only bout agreed upon was a pre-and R. Lee Rillan was chosen treasurer.

The only bout agreed upon was a preliminary between Charles Cornwall and Kid Lemel, which will be an eight-round affair at 142 pounds. A batte royal will will also be put on and this will be attended to by Joe O'Counor. The committee also decided upon Andy Waish as referce for the opening bouts.

All arrangements are in the hands of the committee and entirely out of the control of the club. Subscriptions for tickets have come in largely already, and the list of club members who have already sent in thair names guarantees a big attendance.

The committee decided that the fighters should receive pay for their services and that no proffers of complimentary bouts would be accepted. The body announced that it desired to have a first-class card in every particular, and that the main event would be a bout of high class.

While the names of several leading fighters were proposed, the principals will not be selected until to-day. Jack O'Brien is expected to arrive to-morrow evening and he will be introduced from the ring, together with any other boxer of merit about whom any interest attaches.

Lieutenant John E. Wilson of the Ninth District is in the hospital at present and may have to undergo a surgical operation. On this account he may be unable to appear at the entertainment Friday.

of the tournament. He has failed to win any game in which he played. In the afternoon Clearwater broke the world's tournament record by making a high run of fifty-nine. This makes the second record broken at Benson's tourney. De Oro broke the tournament record in a high run of fifty-eight.

Sherman made a remarkable high run by sending fifty-four ivories into the various pockets during the game.

Last night Eby again displayed his real callber against Sherman, when he beat the latter by a score of 125 to 85. Eby made a high run of forty-six, while Sherman made a high run of thirty-three.

The House of Deputies to-day rejected, after a long debate, a resolution to strike out the words "Protestant Episcopal" from the title page of the book of common prayer. Both houses have appointed a joint committee to consider the advisability of electing a presiding Bishop of the church. As president, the senior Bishop occupies this position, and it is claimed that the duties are too heavy for an aged diocesan.
